DAWN TROOK
VALLEY ROOTS: MAKING THEATER WITH AND ABOUT COMMUNITY

Multicultural Arts Center (MAC)
March 5th, 2020
7:00 PM

Valley Roots is a community-engaged theater process that seeks to hear and help tell the stories of people in the Central Valley whose voices are not often heard.

Dawn Trook has received two Public Arts and Humanities Grants from UCM’s Center for the Humanities to develop plays based on local community member’s stories. She also produces, performs, and directs plays and performance art. She is a faculty member in the Merritt Writing Program at UC Merced.

Please contact arts@ucmerced.edu for any questions.